The Municipal Canvass—The New City Central Committee—The Struggle of the Ins and the Outs, &c., &c.—If the organization of the Conservative party in Manchester is to be kept up it will be necessary to elect a new City Central Committee before the spring elections. This committee has heretofore been elected annually. Last year the Fourth Ward was the only one which elected; in the other wards the old members held on. The last committee was combined from being drowned, and finally annual from the first from the f posed as follows: First Ward, John W. Caudle, B. A. Gary, and John H. Mat-thews; Second Ward, T. M. Fendley, T. E. Owens, and S. M. Purdue; Third Ward, S. Brooks, John R. Cogbill, and B. B. Cogbill, and B Weisiger; Fourth Ward, A. L. Bradley, James D. Craig, and William P. Kidd.

succeeded by Messrs. Henry C. Ferguson, T. E. Owens, and F. J. Sampson, and these last are the only members of the committee who hold a legal election, and Mr. Sampson grand and petit juries for the term. has removed from the ward. But if no new election is held the following vacancies exist: In place of B. A. Gary, removed Lodges of Odd-Fellows have elected the following representatives to the Grand Lodge, moved from the Second Ward; S. Brooks which meets in Richmond April 11th: Hendows Lodge No. 105 A. D. Shotwell reand John R. Cogbill, removed from the derson Lodge, No. 105, A. D. Shotwell re-Third Ward; and F. J. Sampson, removed from the Fourth Ward. It is reported that about the last of April or the first of May City Superintendent Henry A. Jordan will issue a cell son Lodge, No. 105, A. D. Shotwell removed from the presentative, with other Past Grands as alternates; Justine Lodge, No. 105, A. D. Shotwell removed from the presentative, with other Past Grands as alternates; Stuart Lodge, No. 141, Thomas and other Past Grands as alternates; Jackson Lodge, No. 146, Sample Lodge, No. 146, Sam tendent Henry A. Jordan will issue a call, son Lodge, No. 146, Samuel E. Woodfin for the Conservative voters of the various representative, with other Past Grands as wards to assemble at the usual or selected places to elect ward officers and three members of the City Central Committee. This committee, when elected, will assemble at of either or all of them. the call of Superintendent Jordan and elect a new City Superintendent and decide whether there shall be a convention or a primary election. This convention or primary election, as the committee may decide, will be held, it is supposed, between May 10th and May 15th. The election takes place Thursday, May 23d. The officers to be elected are Mayor-for which there are several candidates. Commonwealth's Attorney—A. C. Atkisson, Esq., the present incumbent, is thus far the only candidate announced, and very sure addition to the above there will be elected three conneilmen and one justice of the peace in the First Ward, one councilman divorced wife and Washington Williams. and one justice in the Second Ward, two councilmen and one justice in the Third Ward, and one councilman and one justice in the Fourth Ward. Seven councilmen are to be elected, and if Mr. Moody, of the Third Ward, insists on his resignation, there will be eight to be elected-two-thirds and almost a clean sweep-and it would not be surprising if before the election the remaining four members resigned and allowed the people to elect an entirely new Council, or give them an opportunity of reendorsing their present representatives, of whom it is - but just to say that they have done all that could have been done under the circumstances in their in every way onerous and thankless positions. The following are the councilmen whose places will be vacated: First Ward-Richard S. Whitehead, time expired; John H. Matthews, elected vice Dr. William R. Weisiger, resigned; C. C. Mc-Rae, elected vice William H. Garnett, failed Rae, elected vice William H. Garnett, failed to qualify. Second Ward—Nathan A. Eubank, time expired. Third Ward—Dr. A, Monteiro, time expired; S. R. Owens, elected vice S. Brooks. Fourth Ward—J. H. Patteson, elected vice F. J. Sampson, re-H. Patteson, elected vice F. J. Sampson, removed from ward, elected vice James D. Craig, resigned, whose time would have expired July 1st. The justices who retire are:

The clerk of the Hustings Court, High-Constable, Commissioner of the Revenue, and City Treasurer are not to be elected next May.

It is presumed that all the candidates will abide the decision of the Conservative party, and that if there is an independent candidate he will not be a Kadical in disguise, didates and their friends will be quietly at work from now until that time. That the contest may be waged in a spirit of perfect friendship and good humor, and the best man in all cases win, should be the wish of all good citizens.

The Workings of the Moffett Register— Official Statistics.—Through the courtesy of A.A. Allen, commissioner, and Robert B.
